

Staff Suggested Packing List for Camp:

- Sleeping Bag / Blanket / Pillow
(We suggest bringing a mattress pad if you have one, to get the best sleep possible)
- Towels // Beach, Bath, Hand, Face
- Toiletries // Toothbrush, Toothpaste, Sunscreen, Shampoo, Conditioner, Body Wash, Deodorant, Lotion, Etc.
- Bible, Notebook, Pens
- Weather Appropriate Clothing
(It's in the mountains, so plan for cold, hot, rainy, sunny days.)
- Clothes For A Water Fight
- Shoes
- Water Shoes
- Socks // Lots. Lots of socks.
- Water bottle
- Flashlight
- Sunglasses
- Hats // Perhaps a beanie for the cool days and a baseball cap for the sunny ones
- Jackets // Sweatshirt, Rain Jacket, Something Warm
- Swimwear // Practical for slip and slide and pond
- Money for Trading Post
- CHAPSTICK // Believe us, you'll want it.
- White T-Shirt for Paint Wars
- Misc Suggestions: Fan, Charging cord, Extra pens, extra batteries for flashlight, extension cord, power strip

Fun Suggestions for Counselors:

- Décor // Sometimes a string of lights, or décor to fit a cabin theme (Luau, Carnival, Army, etc.) can be a fun addition to your cabin.
- Bandanas // These are a fun addition to a cabin theme
- Bluetooth Speaker // A Fun way to get campers out of bed in the morning or while getting ready or cleaning up...Music.
- Snacks // Bringing some granola bars, Oreos, chips, candy to share during cabin chat time is a game changer (just make sure to check your cabin list for severe allergies)
- Gum or Mints
- A pack of cards or a fun easy game